OAK VALLEY COMMUNITY BANK ANNOUNCES BRANCH MANAGER HIRING

OAKDALE, CA – Oak Valley Community Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Oak Valley Bancorp (NASDAQ: OVLY), announced that Cesar Camarillo has joined the bank as Vice President, Branch Manager of the bank’s 12th & I Branch in Modesto.

Camarillo joins the Oak Valley team with nearly 17 years of banking industry experience, the past seven as a Branch Manager in the local Modesto market. In this new role, he will be responsible for managing all operational aspects of the branch, leading the 12th & I Branch team members, and pursuing business development opportunities in the Modesto area.

“We’re thrilled to have Cesar join us,” stated Julie DeHart, Executive Vice President, Retail Banking Group. “He is a lifelong Central Valley resident with deep roots in the community and his passion for building relationships with customers, neighbors, and staff will help this location and team thrive.”

Camarillo is a member of St. Stanislaus Catholic Community Church. He currently resides in Ceres with his wife Deysi and their two children. Along with spending time with his family and cheering on his children in their sports activities, he enjoys golfing, cycling, Krav Maga/kickboxing, and soccer.

Oak Valley Bancorp operates Oak Valley Community Bank & their Eastern Sierra Community Bank division, through which it offers a variety of loan and deposit products to individuals and small businesses. They currently operate through 17 conveniently located branches: Oakdale, Turlock, Stockton, Patterson, Ripon, Escalon, Manteca, Tracy, Sacramento, two branches in Sonora, three branches in Modesto, and three branches in their Eastern Sierra division, which includes Bridgeport, Mammoth Lakes, and Bishop. The Company received regulatory approval to open a new office in Roseville, which is currently operating as a Loan Production Office and is expected to open as a full-service branch in the second half of the year.
